

SESSIONAL FOOTBALL COACH LONDON

WHO ARE WE?

Goals4Girls Development Programme uses the power of football as an educational tool, to inspire young women and girls from low income communities to raise aspirations, set and achieve goals and make their voices heard in an inclusive sporting environment.

We do this through our well-being, sports and education programme where we tackle the following: low educational attainment, school engagement, challenging behaviour, sports participation and social barriers all in the hope of developing better community cohesion and inspiring young women and girls to thrive at school, making a successful transition into adulthood.

Core focuses for us are:

- Increasing young people's physical wellbeing
- Improving mental wellbeing
- Growing peer relationships
- Developing positive attitudes towards sport and physical activity

WHY JOIN US?

- We are an expanding, vibrant organisation with a clear purpose to help young people achieve their potential. This is a rare opportunity to take a leading role in driving the sports focus around the women's game.
- We are looking for an ambitious person who sees G4G as a perfect place to develop their craft and improve the lives of the young women and girls we work with.
- G4G is a highly rewarding place of work. The staff get lots of freedom and responsibility to deliver on their roles. The successful candidate will regularly use their creative capabilities to create and deliver fun, engaging sessions that champion the young people we work with.
